

Imperial Pai Gow Poker

This exciting new Pai Gow game offers players two chances to win a bonus payout with a single wager. Player(s) can win on their Pai Gow Hand or the Banker achieving a low Pai Gow Hand or Both.

The object of the game is for the player to achieve a higher five card and two card Pai Gow Poker hand than the Banker.

A single standard deck of playing cards with one joker will be used when dealing Imperial Pai Gow Poker.

Player(s) Banker Hand Bonus payouts are based on the Banker Hand that the Player(s) hand is being compared to.

To start the game, players must place a wager in the circle marked Pai Gow Bet. Bonus bets are optional and must be placed in the circle marked Imperial Bonus Bet prior to the start of each game. After all wagers are placed each player will receive 7 cards.

Once the player(s) hand is arranged and set the Banker hand will be arranged set and compared to each player hand starting from the dealer's right to left.

A 5% commission will be taken on all winning Pai Gow Poker hands. No commission taken on Bonus Bets.

Player(s) who make a bonus bet are entitled to the highest single bonus payout for a hand that they achieve listed under Player Hand Bonus as well as a bonus payout on the Banker Pai Gow hand should the Banker total 7 card hand achieve one of the hands listed below under Banker Hand Player Bonus.

After all Pai Gow bets and Bonus bets are settled the process will be repeated.

PLAYER HAND BONUS

5 Aces	1000 to 1
Royal Flush	200 to 1
Straight Flush	50 to 1
Four of a Kind	25 to 1
Full House	5 to 1
Flush	4 to 1
Three of a Kind	2 to 1
Straight	2 to 1

BANKER HAND PLAYER BONUS

Nine High	100 to 1
Ten High	20 to 1
Jack High	5 to 1
Straight	2 to 1

Players are paid their bonus even if the dealer beats their hand. Players who achieve a bonus hand using the best 5 out of 7 cards are paid regardless of how the hand is set. Gambling problem? Call (1 800 - 426 - 2537)